

LUNCHABLE TROUBLE

Kraft Foods Inc. has recalled 1,000 packages of Oscar Mayer Lunchables because of mislabeling, the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced yesterday.

Labels said the ready-to-eat meals contained a fruit roll but instead they contained a Butterfinger candy bar, a snack made with peanuts, an allergen, the Agriculture Department said.

The product being recalled is the 3.4 ounce and 6.75 ounce Oscar Mayer Lunchables Low Fat Cracker Stackers Ham and Swiss Cheese, Fruit Roll, Capri Sun Fruit Punch. The packages bear the date and establishment number 15 Nov 2004 EB Est. 537C and are stamped with the packaging code 00 44700 2441.